

SAMPLE PACKING CHECKLIST

What to bring:

- Plane ticket
- Passport – if you're crossing the US / Canadian border.
- Maps and Directions – see the “How to Get Here” section on our website
- Personal Medications
- Personal Toiletries
- Ski / snowboard boots – don't forget to pack them in your hand luggage, just in case your checked baggage gets delayed or goes missing.
- Ski / snowboard clothing – we recommend that you dress in layers as you'll be skiing a wide range of elevations.
- Ski / snowboard equipment – unless you're renting your skis / snowboard from us.
- Swimsuit – for the sauna and hot tub.
- Après ski and board clothing – the dress code at Retallack is casual so you can leave the tiara at home.
- Sunscreen
- Camera
- Guitars, banjos, mouth organs or other musical instruments of choice – we're always up for a jam session!
- Probe and shovel – we provide guests with probes but you can bring an extra one if you'd like.
- Powder straps – they're not essential but they can be handy if you lose a ski in deep powder.

What not to bring:

- Alcohol – by law all alcohol on the premises must be purchased under our liquor licence. However, we have a well-stocked cellar of wines from both the old and new worlds and serve a full selection of beers and spirits. And if you have any special requests – such as a specific bottle or wine or liquor – we are happy to accommodate wherever we can.
- Drink flasks – we provide you with your own water bottle and plenty of water on the snowcat.
- Avalanche transceivers – we'll supply you with a top-of-the-range model.
- First aid kits.
- Boot dryers – we have a drying room at the lodge.
- Ski / snowboard tuning equipment – we have a wax and tuning room with everything you need for tuning and repairing your ski equipment.
